

APPENDIX

No. 6.

THE ROYAL GRANT OF KING CHARLES THE FIRST, MADE IN THE ELEVENTH YEAR OF HIS REIGN.

CHARLES, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth, to all whom these presents shall come GREETING,

KNOW YE, that we, as well on pte of our completing and performing of a certain contract and agreement of ours, by our indenture under our great seal of England, bearing date the Twenty-Seventh day of December in the fourth year of our reign, made between us, with the advice of our LORDS and others of our PRIVY COUNCIL, on the one part; and CORNELIUS VERMUYDEN, Esq. on the other part, as for and in consideration of a yearly rent, reserved to us by these presents. As for divers other good causes and considerations, especially moving us thereof at present. We, of our especial royal favour, and our certain knowledge, and meer motion, have given and granted, and by these presents for us, our heirs and successors, at the nomination and request of the assigns of the said CORNELIUS VERMUYDEN, DO GIVE AND GRANT to our well beloved SIR WILLIAM CURTINE, Knt. and ROBERT CANRELL, Alderman, of the City of London; and our faithful and well beloved servants CHARLES HARRISON, Esq. our surveyor general; THOMAS BRINLEY, Esq. one of the auditors of our revenues; JOHN LANGRIS, merchant; and TIMOTHY VANLEETRAEN, clerk, their heirs and assigns, all those parts, portions, or parcells of land, lying and being within or near HATFIELD CHASE, in the county of York, or within the plain called the level of the same chase, in the county of York aforesaid, or Lincoln, and Nottingham, or any of them, and within the manor or parish of Snaith, Cowick, and Raveliff, Epworth, Belton, Harey, Stockwith, Crowle, Mizen, Misterton, and Gringley, or either of them, or in any of our said countys of York, Lincoln, and Nottingham, or either of them, or any lately inclosed or to be inclosed, and certain watercourses digged and divided in severally, reduced or to be reduced by the said Cornelius Vermuyden, or his partners or assigns, of the waste lands thereby them lately delivered and improved, or to be delivered and improved, besides all the parts of the said waste lands, several towns and persons having common within the chase and plain aforesaid, belonging or allowed by means of the said contract or agreement, for