

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

THE THAMES—THE POOL, ETC.

PAGE

The Pool—The Commerce of London—Execution Dock—The Thames Gibbets—The Warship , Arcturua , and Chichester Training Ships—The Drainbought —A Floating Smallpox Hospital—Bugby's Reach, Woolwich Reach, and Gallion's Reach—Plumstead and Erith Marshes—Sewage Outfall of the Metropolitan Main Drainage Works—Dagenham—Erith—The Darent and the Cray—Long Reach—Purfleet—Powder Magazines—The Cromwell Reformatory Ship—Greenhithe and Northfleet—Stone Church—Ingress Abbey—The Training Ship Worcester —West Thurrock, Gray's Thurrock, and Little Thurrock—Belmont Castle—South Hope Reach—Discovery of Fossils and Remains of Animals—"Canobolin's Gold Mines," or "Dane Holes"—Gravesend—Tilbury Fort—West Tilbury—Tilbury Docks—Hope Reach—East Tilbury—Thames Haven—Carvey Island—Hadleigh Castle—Leigh—Yanlet Creek—The Boundary Marks of the Thames Conservancy—Southend	1
--	---

CHAPTER II.

WOOLWICH.

Situation and Extent of Woolwich Town—Its Etymology—Domesday Record of Woolwich—Descent of the Manor—A Curious Tradition respecting North Woolwich—Roman Occupation of Woolwich—A Market Established here—Acreage of the Parish, and Census Returns—Description of the Town—Steamboat Piers and Railway Stations—Early Naval Importance of the Town—Pepys's Official Visits to the Dockyard—Dangers of the Neighbourhood—Woolwich a Century Ago—Omnibuses and Steam-Packets Established—Hanging Wood—Woolwich as a Fishing Village—The Parish Church—Other Churches and Chapels—The Goldsmiths' Almshouses—Parochial Almshouses—Lovelace, the "Cavalier" Poet—Grimaldi—A Centenarian	6
--	---

CHAPTER III.

WOOLWICH (continued)—THE DOCKYARD AND ARSENAL.

Situation and Extent of the Dockyard—Its Early History—The Building of the Harry-Grace-a-Dieu —Queen Elizabeth present at a Launch here—The Ship Sovereign Royal , called by the Dutch the Golden Devil —Batteries raised and Ships sunk at Woolwich for Defence against the Dutch—Prince Rupert's Tower—Enlargement of the Dockyard—The Docks re-modelled under Sir John Rennie—The Docks "Disestablished"—Subsequent use of the Dockyard—Convicts and the Hulks—Situation and Extent of the Royal Arsenal—Beresford Street and Beresford Square—Condition of the Locality a Century ago—An Explosion at the Gun Foundry at Moorfields—Andrew Schalch—Early History of the Ordnance Armoury at Woolwich—"Greenwich Barne"—Extracts from Ordnance Records—The Laboratory Establishment removed hither from Greenwich—Woolwich Warren—General View of the Arsenal—Mutiny among the Woolwich Rope-makers—Establishment of the Brass Foundry here—Number of Men employed here—"Watering Time"—Description of the Arsenal Buildings—The Entrance—Dial Square—The Old Brass Gun Foundry—The Laboratory Workshop—The Pattern-Room and Museum—The Military Store Department—The Gun Factories—"Woolwich Infants"—The Great Nasmyth Hammer—The Carriage Department—Regulations for Admission of the Public—Museum of the Royal Artillery—The East Laboratory—The Sale Yard—The "Proof-butts"	14
---	----

CHAPTER IV.

WOOLWICH (continued)—THE BARRACKS, ETC.

Barracks for Sappers and Miners—Dépôt for Field-Train Artillery—The Ordnance Hospital—Barracks for the Royal Horse and Foot Artillery—The Bhurtpore Trophy—The Crimean Memorial—The Royal Engineer Barracks—The Army Service Corps—The Dépôt Barracks—The Riding School—The Royal Artillery Institution—The Royal Military Repository—The Rotunda—Royal Military Academy—Memorial of the Prince Imperial—A Mineral Well—Shooter's Hill	28
--	----