

- Brentford, I. 29; traffic through; origin of the name, 29, 31; the Priory of the Holy Angels, 29; George II.'s fondness for Brentford; danger from highwaymen, 30; Caesar's crossing of the Thames near, 31; the "Brentford Eye"; geology of Brentford; its history in Saxon times, 32; battles fought during the Commonwealth era; Cromwell at; Samuel Pepys at; the plague at; Cosmo, Grand Duke of Tuscany, at; the "Two Kings of Brentford," 33; Cosper and Prior's allusions to; the dirt of; Gay and Thomson's allusions to; Goldsmith's mention of; Charles Dickens and Brentford; the High Street and the Duke of Wellington; the hostries; the "Wagon and Horses" and Samuel Pepys, 34; the "Tumble-down Dick," 35; ballad allusions to Richard Cromwell; a brutal murder at; Old Brentford Church; New Brentford Church; ancient bell, 35; St. Paul's Church, Old Brentford; various works; chimney of the Grand Junction water-works, 36; drinking fountain; the bear-baitings of; the market-place; election contests of former periods, 37; Wilkes and Colonel Luttrell; Lord North's letter; popularity of Wilkes, 38; a Mid-dlesex election at; "electors" of Middlesex; Boston House; Sion House Academy; Wyke Farm, 39; Mrs. Trimmer; sports and diversions; curious entries in the accounts of; the bear-bait Street, Hendon, churches and chapels at, I. 280
- Bridget, Sir William, Parliamentary general, II. 149, 151
- Bridgend, Kent, II. 50, 52
- Bridgman, Sir Orlando, I. 120, 128
- Bristol House, Putney Heath; its owners, II. 485
- Britton, the topographer, I. 270, 507, II. 124
- Broadway House, Plaistow; its present uses, I. 510
- Broadway railway station, Ealing, I. 20, 21
- Brockley Hill, Edgware; a supposed Roman station, I. 285, 297, 302, 304
- Bromfield Park, Southgate, I. 316
- Bromley, Kent; origin of name; the town, II. 83; Dr. Hawkesworth; the grave of Dr. Johnson's wife; the Town Hall, 84; New Bromley; the parish church, 85; some account of the first church, 86; Dr. Johnson's wife's grave, 87; Latin inscription on the tomb; the south door of the church; parish registers; a veritable centenarian, 88; the vicarage; curious archaeological discoveries; St. John's Church; the Bishop of Rochester's former palace, 89; Bromley College; Simpson's Moot; Bromley Hill, 93; Lord Farnborough; the railway; Sandridge Park, 94; geological formations; Grove Park; Motttingham hamlet; Catford, 95; Catford Bridge, 96
- Bromley Palace, Kent; the husband of Rochester's residence; the laurel-tree, II. 89; "Bishop's Well," 90; lines on "St. Blaise's Well," historical incidents connected with the well, 91, 92
- Brondebury, Willenden, I. 225
- Broome, the poet, I. 97
- Brougham, Lord, I. 446, II. 355, 485
- Brown, "Capability," architect, II. 55, 592, 204, 476
- Browne, Lyde, Mr.; his house at Wimbledon; other residents, II. 487
- Browning, Robert, the poet, I. 304
- Bruce, James, the Scotch traveller, I. 267
- Brydges, James, afterwards Duke of Chandos (q.v.), I. 287, 289, 290, 298, 332; Snoulet's account of his defalcations, 290
- Buceleuch, Duke of; his house at Richmond, II. 375, 376
- Buckhurst Hill, I. 436; its etymology; the railway station; St. John's Church; the Congregational Church; Langford Place; the Essex Naturalists' and Field Club, 442; the Lopping Hunt; the "Bald-faced Stag" and "Roebuck" inn; the "Horse and Well" inn, 443; the Epping Hunt of 1826, 443-445
- Buckingham, Execution of Stafford, Duke of, I. 364
- Buckingham, Duke of, How Charles I. received the news of his death, II. 49
- Buckingham, Duke of, Duel between the Earl of Shrewsbury and, II. 491
- Buckstone, Mr. J. B., comedian, II. 98
- Budd, Mr. Henry, curious condition of his will, I. 94
- Bulkeley, Sir Richard, II. 242
- Bull Lands, Twickenham, I. 78
- Bull's Cross, Enfield, I. 349, 359, 373, 376
- Bullsmore Lane, Enfield, I. 371
- Bulwer Lytton, Sir Edward, I. 14; battle of Barnet, 325-327
- Bunsen, Baron, I. 283, 334
- Burdett, Sir Francis, I. 21, 39, II. 380, 486, 493
- Burdett-Coutts, Lady, II. 314, 486
- Burges, Mr. W., the historian, 405, 412, 414
- Burgoyne, General; his marriage to Lord Derby's daughter, II. 219, 264; his defeat at Saratoga, 219
- Burnham Beeches, Epping Forest, I. 437
- Burrowe Town, Plaistead, II. 25
- Burrell family, The, II. 101, 104, 106
- Burroughs, West Drayton, Gennets; Arabian's former residence; early history of the place, I. 207
- Burrows, Prof., Sketch of Sion House, I. 207
- Burton, the antiquary, II. 311
- Bury Green, Cheshunt, I. 385
- Bushey, Middlesex, I. 270, 272, 302
- Bushey Heath; description of the scenery; Bushey manor; the parish church, 305; monuments, 306; St. Peter's Church; Bushey Hall; Hartbourns Manor House; census returns; Oxhey; Watford; the Salters' Almshouses, 307; Aldenham; acreage and population; descent of the manor; Kemp Row, 308; Tibbalt manor; Kendall manor; Fickes or Newberry; Aldenham House; Penn's Place; St. John's parish church, 309; the Grammar School; discovery of Roman remains, 310
- Bushey Park; its extent; the Diana water; William IV.'s residence; Lord North's residence; the great chestnut-trees; various divisions of the park, I. 131; Oliver Cromwell's encroachments on the park; Bennet, the village shoemaker, and the right of way, 132
- Bushey Grove, I. 308
- Bushey Hall hydropathic establishment, I. 307
- Busk, Captain Hans, and the volunteer movement, II. 501, 502
- Butler, author of "Hudibras," II. 312
- Butler, Dr. G., head master of Harrow School, I. 261, 267, 268
- Butler, Dr. H. Montagu, head master of Harrow School, I. 261, 265
- Butts, the polling-place for Middlesex at Brentford, I. 38
- "Butts," The Harrow School, I. 263, 264
- Buxton family, The, Waltham, I. 411, 417
- Byng, Admiral, I. 318, 319
- Byron, Admiral, of the Wager, I. 76
- Byron, Lord, a distinguished Harrovian, I. 261, 262, 268, 274, II. 361; his tomb, Harrow, I. 262, 268, 274
- Byron, the late Lady, I. 23
- C
- "Cabal," The, II. 310, 320
- Cassar, Sir Julius, II. 98
- Cesaromagus, near Brentwood, place of Caesar's crossing the Thames, I. 32
- Cesar's Camp, near Shepperton, I. 179
- Cesar's Camp, Wimbledon Common, II. 479, 491; opinions of antiquaries thereon, 494-497
- Cesar's crossing the Thames; antiquarian doubts of the locality, I. 179-181, II. 297, 299
- Cesars Well, Keston Common, source of the Ravensbourne, II. 97
- Caldecott Hill, Bushey Heath, I. 305
- Calendon, Countess of, 82, 83
- Cambridge, Archdeacon, schools of, I. 76
- Cambridge Cottage, Kew Green, II. 408
- Cambridge House, Twickenham; its successive owners, I. 82, 83
- Cambridge, Duke of, II. 315, 316, 353, 399
- Cambridge Park, Twickenham, I. 75
- Cambridge, Richard Owen, I. 76, 82; some account of, 82, 83
- Camden, Charles Pratt, Baron, II. 75, 76
- Camden Place, Chislehurst, II. 70, 73, 74; last residence of Napoleon III., 74
- Canlet Moot, Enfield, I. 349, 352, 367, 369
- Cannell, the painter, 365, 359
- Cann Hall, Waltham, I. 479
- Canning, Elizabeth, Story of, I. 375
- Canning Town, Plaistow, I. 510
- Canonica, Louise, Wimbledon; its residents, II. 487, 488
- Canon Row, Woolwich, II. 10, 17
- Canon's Bridge, Ruislip, I. 243
- Canon's, near the Duke and Wellington House, I. 284, 285, 286, 287 (see Chandos)
- Capel family, The, II. 395
- Capels, Enfield, I. 373, 376
- Capel family, The, Bushey, I. 306
- Capwarth Street, Leyton, I. 484
- Caracci, the painter, I. 359
- Carigan, Earl of, Duel between Capt. Tackett and the, II. 494
- Carew family, The, and the Arlington House, II. 180, 183, 184, 185-191, 195, 198, 201, 208, 216, 221, 243, 251
- Carey, Henry, Queen Elizabeth and, I. 150, II. 339
- Carnarvon, John, Marquis of, I. 293
- Caroline, Queen, wife of George II.; her gardens and grove at Richmond, II. 345, 346; Merlin's Cave, 346, 347; Stephen Duck, her librarian, 346, 348; her residence, 357; Kew Palace leased by, 305
- Carpenters Park, Bushey, I. 307
- Carriage Department, Woolwich Arsenal, II. 26
- Carshilton, Surrey, II. 183; its situation and boundaries; derivation of the name, 187; the "Downside" notice; history of the manor, 198; a weekly market once held here; market gardens and fish culture; Fuller's remarks on the production of the parish, 199; a "poetic" description of the village; the taverns "poetically" described, 200; the river Wandie, 200, 201; the pond; Anne Boleyn's Well; All Saints' Church; monuments and epitaphs; the parish registers, 202; the railway station; Stone Coast; its historical associations; Carshilton House and Dr. Radcliffe, 203; anecdotes of Dr. Radcliffe, 204, 205; Carshilton Park, 205, 206; Culvers; Leicester House, once the Metropolitan Convalescent Asylum; May-Day customs at Carshilton, 205
- Carshilton House, II. 201, 203
- Carshilton Park, II. 201, 203, 205, 206
- Cartridge Case Factory, Woolwich Arsenal, II. 26
- Cartwright, Major, political reformer, I. 339, 362
- Cass, Rev. F. C., on the battle of Barnet, I. 296, 297, 298
- Cassobury, Herts, Earl of Essex's seat, I. 307
- Castlebar Hill, Ealing, I. 30, 22