

- Paul, Mr., duel between Sir Francis Burtett and, II. 486, 493
 Peacocks, Yew-trees in the shape of, Bodfont, I. 195
 Peckham, Archbishop, II. 149, 159, 165
 Peck, Sir Henry W., II. 368, 485
 Peel, Sir Robert, a distinguished Harrowian, I. 268
 Pellham, Mr. Henry, brother of Duke of Newcastle, II. 286, 287, 291; Latin inscription to, 292
 Pembroke Lodge, Richmond Park, II. 353, 354, 355
 Penge, Kent; population, II. 68; the "Crooked Billet" inn; railway stations; the Kingdon Canal; churches; the Waterman's and Lighterman's Asylum, 99; King William IV.'s Naval Asylum, 100
 Pengelly House, Chestnut, I. 384, 386, 390
 Pennant, Sir Samuel, I. 295, II. 295
 Penn's Place, Manor of, Middlesex, I. 399
 Penn, William, the Quaker, I. 129, 433, 482, 483, II. 15, 16; his father, 482
 Penningwell, Middlesex, I. 297
 Peppy, Samuel, I. 222, 322, 323, 345, 459, 476, 534, 535, 536, 539, 541, II. 1, 15, 20, 44, 214, 215, 237, 244, 247, 248, 251, 259, 264, 264, 460, 461
 Peppy family, Fomb of, II. 333
 Percival, Right Hon. Spencer, I. 269; House of, Ealing, 23
 Percy, Algerion, Lion House repaired and renovated by, I. 3
 Percy family, Some account of the fortunes of the, I. 53
 Perivale, Middlesex; situation of the village, I. 202; early history of the parish; the parish church; its brasses and monuments, 221
 Perkins, Mr. Henry, I. 70
 Perrot, Sir George, I. 183
 Perry, the editor, II. 487
 Perryn House, Twickenham, afterwards the Economic Museum, I. 77
 Petersham, Surrey; its situation; the manor, II. 324; its church; its monuments, 325; distinguished persons buried here, 326; the Misses Berry and Horace Walpole, 326, 327; Gay's Summer-house, 327, 328; Petersham Lodge and Catherine Hyde, Duchess of Queensberry, 328; anecdotes of the duchess; and other owners of the property; Sadbrooke; Date House; Douglas House; Charles Dickens, 329
 Petersham, Lord, II. 302, II. 325
 Petersham Lodge; its residents, II. 328; the Duchess of Queensberry, 328, 329
 Petersham Park, II. 353
 Peto, Sir Samuel Morton, I. 243
 Phillippot, the Kentish historian, II. 60, 64, 95
 Phillips, Prof., on the geology of Brentford, I. 32
 Phillips, Sir Richard, II. 458, 459
 Phillips, the painter, II. 486
 "Physic Well," The, Barnet; Samuel Peppy, I. 323
 The Powder, Court of, I. 352
 Pin, The river, I. 259
 Pinner, Middlesex; the village; population, I. 249; Miss Howard's charity; market and fairs; the parish church; memorials, 249; centenarians; a barbarous custom; schools and cemetery
 Pinner Hill; Pinner Wood House; Pinner Place; Pinner Grove; Pinner Park; Pinner Green and Wood Hall; Wooding; Mrs. Horatia Ward; the Commercial Travellers' Society's schools, 251; Headstone, or the Manor Farm, 252
 Pinner Place, I. 251
 Pinner Wood House, I. 251
 Piombi, Sebastian del, the painter, I. 165
 Pizotti, Mrs., II. 525
 "Piper's Green," Edgware, I. 285
 Pit Place, Epsom, and Lord Lytton's ghost, II. 253-255
 Pitt diamond, The, I. 39, 40
 Pitt, George Morton, a resident at Orleans House, Twickenham, I. 37
 Pitt, Thomas, Governor of Madras, I. 39; the Pitt Diamond, 39, 40
 Pitt, William, Earl of Chatham, II. 392
 Pitt, William, I. 233, II. 102, 107, 108, 357, 484; his residence, Keaton, 112, 113, 114, 487, 488; his duel with George Tierney, 490, 492, 493; at Wimbledon, 484
 Place House, Little Ealing, I. 21
 Plague, Visitation of the, I. 33, 35
 Plaistow, Essex; its flat and unattractive appearance, I. 509; its sources of wealth; the Metropolitan main drainage works; population, 510; railway stations; churches and chapels; hospitals; works and manufactories; the Victoria Docks, 511; vegetable fossil remains; the Royal Victoria and Albert Docks; railway stations, 512; North Woolwich; the gardens; St. John's Church; eminent residents, 513
 Plaistow, Kent, II. 83, 94
 Plasket House, East Ham; Mrs. Fry, I. 515
 Platten, Mr., I. 32
 Plumer, Sir Thomas, Vice-chancellor, I. 295
 Plum Lane, Plumstead, II. 34
 Plumstead, Kent, II. 8; its situation and extent; census returns, 34; "Domesday" records; descent of the manor; Barrage Tower; Bostall, or Bostal; Suffolk Place, East Ham, 35; and of the manor; Plumstead Common, 35; the old Artillery practice-but, the Slade; Bramble Ditch, or Bramblebury House; brickfields and saw-mills; the cemetery, 37; the old parish church, 38; extracts from the parish registers; St. Margaret's new parish church; other churches and chapels; Brookhill School; Woolwich Union; the railway station; geological formation of the district; Plumstead Marshes; the Main Drainage Works at Crossness Point, 39
 Plumstead Common, II. 35, 37, 38
 Podger, the gate-keeper of Bushey Park, I. 131; his death, 134
 Pollock, Chief Baron, I. 70
 Ponder's End, I. 349, 350, 351, 357
 Pope, I. 5, 21, 39, 40, 85, 86, 93, 95, 195, 201, 202, 291, 292, 293; 316, II. 322, 323, 350, 373, 383, 384, 388, 397; anecdotes of him, 87; his poetical description of the Duke of Wharton, 91; his parentage and early life, 95, 95; his early translations; Miss Martha Bount; his translation of the "Iliad," 96; the "Odyssey"; an almost fatal accident, 97; publication of the "Miscellanies," "Marrinus Scribentus," "Duncial," and other works, 97, 98; his death and burial; his skill; his character and temperament, 98; his love of solitude; his personal appearance; lampooned in verse; his alleged horse-shiping, 99; his friendship at one time with Lady Mary Montagu; his friends; Swift's activity in promoting the subscription for the "Iliad"; his popularity; Voltaire's visit, 100; his reply to Frederick, Prince of Wales; Warburton's acquaintance with Pope; Spence's anecdotes of Pope, 101; Pope's fondness for animals, 101, 102; his love of economy; Swift's apostrophe to Pope, 102; his rank as a poet; Dr. Johnson's opinion of his merits, 103; Thackeray's opinion, 103, 104; Rev. T. Thomson on Pope, 104; his last illness and death, 104, 105; his lines about himself; his will, 105; his villa at Twickenham, 105, 106; his garden; the willow-tree in his garden, 106; his grove, 106, 107; the poet's description of his grove, 107, 108; his apostrophe to the pilgrim visitor; his love of his "Twickenham"; "the case of Pope," 108; sale of the mansion to Sir William Stanhope; the property passed to Right Hon. Welbore Ellis (afterwards Lord Mandeville, 109; his successive owners, 110; Pope's villa raised to the ground, and a new mansion erected by Baroness Howe; description of the spot by a foreigner, 110; subsequent history of the property, 110, 111
 Poplar, I. 548
 Porter, Misses Jane and Anna Maria, II. 286, 287
 Porter, Sir R. Ker, painter, II. 287
 Porter, Mrs., the actress, I. 284
 Porters Estate, Middlesex, I. 312, 313
 Portland, Earl of, Marriage of, II. 464
 Portland, Duchess of, I. 225
 Potter, Archbishop, II. 154, 156
 Potter's Bar, Middlesex, 310, 368, 391, 395; St. John's Church; Dyrham Park, 317; Wrotham Park; its destruction by fire, 318; Hadley Common; Christ Church, 319
 Pound, the astronomer; his long telescope, and Pennant's lines thereon; his nephew Bradley, I. 482
 Poussin, Nicholas, the painter, I. 165
 Powder-mills, The Government, Waltham, I. 399; the manufacture of gunpowder, I. 400-403
 Powell, William, the "Harmonious Blacksmith," and Handel, I. 284, 296
 Poyle Park, Colindale, Middlesex, I. 195
 Prescott family, The, I. 383, 387
 Prince Imperial, The, II. 71, 72, 74, 80
 Prince Rupert's Tower, Woolwich, II. 16
 Prince's Freddies, or Convalescent Home, Hampton, I. 134, 164
 Princess Helena College, Ealing, I. 22
 Prior, the poet, I. 34, 94, 372, 565, II. 205, 215, 284
 Pritchard, Mrs., actress, I. 83, 86
 Prizes and scholarships at Harrow School, I. 261
 Probber the murderer, I. 393, 311
 Proby, Rev. Charles, vicar of Twickenham, I. 76, 98
 Proctor, Dr., rector of Hadley, I. 328, 329
 Prolife families, II. 305
 Procutts, Woolwich Arsenal, II. 27, 28
 Prospect Hall, Woodford, I. 464
 Pudding-stone, where found, I. 304
 Puggs, the family of the, I. 333, 334
 Puritan rectors of Acton, I. 10
 Purley, Surrey; its history; Purley House; the "Divisions of Purley," II. 141; John Horne Tooke; a remarkable libel case, 142; the obliquity of the clergy, 143, 144; Horne Tooke's epithet, 145
 Purley House, John Horne Tooke's residence, II. 141, 145
 Putterham, the poet, II. 526

Q

- Quaggy, The stream of the, II. 97
 Quakers, The, at Uxbridge, I. 236
 Quare, Daniel, the horologist, I. 165
 Queen Elizabeth's Dairy Farm, II. 1, 458
 Queen Elizabeth's Lodge, Epping Forest, I. 430, 437, 439, 440, 441, 442
 Queen Elizabeth's Tree, Nonsuch Park, II. 238, 239
 Queen Elizabeth's Walk, Waddon, II. 183
 Queen Henrietta Maria, II. 474, 475
 Queen Victoria, II. 285, 293
 Queen Victoria's Wood, High Beech, I. 430, 436, 437
 Queen's Gallery, or Tapestry Gallery,