

- Taverns; gentlemen's seats; Wembley Green, 274
- Wesley, I. 79, 213
- Wesleyan Theological Institution, Richmond, II. 369, 370
- West Beilfont, I. 195
- West Draxton, Middlesex, I. 205; its vegetable productions; the manor and its descent, 206; remains of the manor-house, 206, 207; Burroughs, formerly General Arabin's seat; the parish church; the parochial cemetery; the railway station; population; St. Catharine's Roman Catholic Church, 207; Thorney Broad and trout-fishing; the moose-crozier; Viewsley, 208
- West Ham, Essex; its division into wards; population; markets and fairs; All Saints' parish church; monuments; a curious fresco, 592, 593; eminent persons buried in the churchyard; charitable institutions; chapels; Upton Park, 594; the Gurney family; West Ham Park; Forest Gate; taverns and tea-gardens; Emmanuel and St. James's Churches, 595; population of Forest Gate; almshouses, 596
- West Ham cemetery, I. 506
- West India Docks; vastness of trade and commerce; arrival of coal-ships and other vessels in the port of London; number of barges and other craft assigned for traffic in 1792; plunder carried on in the lighters in the river, I. 549; the Thames police; proposals for the establishment of a dock; foundation of the West India Docks; the opening ceremony, 550; description of the docks; a curious miscellany, 551; new dry docks; the Wood Wharf; the Run Quay; the South West India Dock; the wool warehouses, 552
- West London District Schools, Ashford, Middlesex, I. 486
- West Middlesex Waterworks Company, II. 457
- West Molesey, Surrey; the church; cemetery; Sir R. W. Carden, II. 283; Robert Baddeley, the actor, 283, 284
- West, Temple, of West Wickham, II. 128, 129
- West Wickham; annals of the parish, II. 124; Wickham Court; history of the mansion; the gallery of portraits, 125; fortifications of the house, 126; its internal fittings; the lawn, 127; the church; monuments and brasses; the parish registers, 128; Temple West's residence; Glover, the poet; discovery of poisonous weapons and implements; a group of remarkable trees, 129
- Westmacott, the sculptor, II. 527
- Wey, The river, II. 281
- Weighby, II. 296
- Whalebone House, Iford, I. 466
- Wharton, Duke of, I. 91, 92; account of, 92; his unfinished poem on Mary Queen of Scots, 92
- Whately, Archbishop, II. 238
- Whetstone, Middlesex, I. 332, 333; its situation; St. John's Church; census returns; George Morland, the artist, 335; general appearance of the village, 337
- Whip's Cross, Walthamston, I. 465, 472, 484; why so named, 471
- Whitaker and Midland, The families of, I. 447
- Whitcheur, Edgware, I. 284, 285, 286, 297; the parish church, 292, 296; its monuments, 297
- White, Sir Thomas, I. 464
- White Gate, Woolwich, II. 10
- Whitehead, Paul, politician and satirist, I. 93, 128
- Whitehead, the poet, II. 179
- Whitelock, the historian, I. 7, 33
- White Lodge, The, Richmond Park; Queen Caroline's residence, II. 257; the Bag Lodge; Spanker's Hill, 358
- White Woburn House, Enfield, I. 366, 369; the Gunpowder Plot, 369
- Whitgift, Archbishop, II. 149, 154, 156, 164, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 183
- Whitgift's Hospital, Croydon, II. 165; its foundation; its cost, 166; instructions concerning the charity; description of the building, 167; character of Whitgift, 168, 169; the school-house, 170
- Whitgift's Grammar School, Croydon, II. 177
- Whitton, Hounslow Heath, Sir Godfrey Kneller's house, I. 69
- Whitton Park, Hounslow Heath, I. 69
- "Widow's Struggle," The, Inn, Hampton, I. 131
- Wilberforce, William, philanthropist, I. 238, 282, 283, 334, II. 105, 112, 137, 486, 487, 488
- Wilberforce, Bishop, II. 113, 193
- "Wilberforce Oak," The, II. 113
- Wilderness, The, Hampton Court Palace, I. 170
- Wilkes, John, the demagogue; his popularity; Hogarth's portrait, I. 38; his personal appearance, 39; his residences at Teddington and Mill Hill, 129, 281
- Wilkes, Rev. Wetenhall, the poet, I. 68, 69, 197
- Willessden, Middlesex; the railway station, I. 222; extent and population; the railway junctions; the River Brent; old name of Willessden; the parish church, 223; enlargement and restoration; monumental brasses; old customs of the parish; old curates; supposed exploits of Jack Sheppard at Willessden; Church End; Queen's Town, 224; Willessden Green; Bromleybury; the Jewish cemetery; Harefield, Crickwood; Newenden railway depôts; Sherrick Green; Dollis Green; Stonebridge Park, 225
- Willessden Green, I. 224, 225; its Inns, 225
- William III. and Queen Mary at Hampton Court; his delf-ware; his death, I. 155
- William, Prince of Orange, the Stadtholder, at Hampton Court, I. 157
- Wilmsdon; situation and boundaries of the parish, II. 469; its etymology; early history of the manor, 470; Burstow Park, 471; the Cromwell family, 471-473; the Cecils; Queen Elizabeth at Wilmsdon; James IV.'s visit to the Earl of Exeter; Queen Victoria at the manor house; Viscount Wilmsdon, 473; Queen Henrietta purchases the manor, 474; Thomas Osborne, Earl of Danby, afterwards Duke of Leeds, 475; it finally comes to Lord Spencer; the present manor house, 476; the Artesian well; description of the original manor house, 477, 478; the old village; the parish church, 480, 481; the old parsonage; other churches and chapels; the cemetery; public institutions of the parish; Wilmsdon Green, 482; the London Scottish Golf Club, 482, 483; the Wembley Sewage Works, 483; eminent residents, I. Pitt; Horne Tooks, 484; Windlestone House; Joseph Marwood; Gothic House; Captain Maryatt; the Countess of Guilford; Lord North, 485; General Sir Henry Murray; Sir Francis Bantlett, 486; William Wilberforce, 486, 487; Mr. Lyde Browne, 487; Lord Melville; the Marquis of Rockingham; Lord Cotesingham; Eliza Cook, 488; Jenny Lind, 488, 489; Sir Bartle Trevelyan, 489; extent and boundaries of the Common; its scenery; the windmill and the Roman well; the gibbets, 490; highwaymen, 490; celebrated duels fought on the Common, 491-494; Crsar's Camp, 494; opinions of antiquarians thereon, 494-497; the first volunteer movement;
- first volunteer review at Wimbledon, 497; numerical strength of the volunteers of old; enthusiasm of the country in 1803, 498; patriotic songs; a defence of the volunteer system, 502; revival of the volunteer movement in 1859; formation of the force, 501; Captain Hans Busk; the first volunteer review by Queen Victoria, 502; inauguration of the National Rifle Association at Wimbledon, 502; camp life at Wimbledon, 507; prizes, &c.; the Elcho Challenge Shield; the Ashburton Shield; the butts; concluding remarks, 508
- Wimbledon Common, II. 479, 489
- Wimbledon House, II. 476; description of, 477, 478; the second house, 479; the modern mansion; its various owners, 485
- Wimbledon Lodge, II. 486
- Wimbledon Sewage Works, II. 483
- Winchmore Hill, Southgate; St. Paul's Church, II. 346
- Windmill Hill, Enfield, I. 349, 351, 356, 356, 368, II. 350, 351, 354
- Windmill Lane, Brentford, I. 40; Mrs. Trimmer's residence, II.
- Windsor Street, or the Lynch, Uxbridge, I. 233, 237
- Withdrawing-room, The, Hampton Court Palace; its tapestry, I. 161
- Woffington, Peg, the celebrated actress, I. 128, 137; monument to, in Teddington Church, 129
- Wolsey, Cardinal, I. 332, 142, 143, 144, 279; lease of the Manor of Hampton Court, 142, 143; some account of Wolsey, 144-146; his style of living at Hampton Court; Dr. Johnson's character of Wolsey, 146; Anne Boleyn and Wolsey's fall, 146, 147; wealth of Wolsey; he "presents" Hampton Court to the king, 147; Wolsey's entertainment to the French Ambassador while at Hampton Court, 147-149; fall of Wolsey, II. 289, 300; Wolsey as a messenger, II. 359; Thomas Cromwell and, 472, 473
- Wolsey's Court, Hampton Court Palace, I. 159
- Wolsey's Hall, Hampton Court Palace, I. 162
- Wolsey's red hat, I. 114
- Wolsey's Tower, Esher, II. 287, 288, 291
- Wolsey's Well, Esher, II. 286
- Wood, Alderman Matthew, I. 122
- Wood, Anthony, A. I. 15, 21, 58, 82, 200, II. 311, 383
- Woodcote House, Epsom; the mansion and its owners, II. 287
- Woodcote Park, Epsom, II. 243, 244, 252, 256, 257
- Wood End Green, Hayes, Middlesex, I. 210, 214
- Woodford, Essex; its boundaries; its subdivision; descent of the manor, I. 458; manorial custom of "Borough-English"; Woodford Hall; census returns; the railway station; Woodford Bridge, 459; Claybury Hall; Ray House; Church End; St. Margaret's Church; monuments, 460; Sir Edmund Barry George; Woodford Hall; Mrs. Gladstone's Convent House; a pauper's legacy; Woodford Green; the Congregational Church, 461; Union Church; social institutions, 462; Harts; Monkhams, 463; All Saints' Church; the Firs; Prospect Hall; Woodford Wells; the "Horse and Wheel"; Knighton House; the manor-house; noted residents, 464
- Woodford Bridge, I. 458, 459, 460
- Woodford Hall, I. 459, 491
- Woodford Side, Walthamston, I. 465
- Wood Hall, Pinner, Middlesex, I. 257
- Woodlands, Chigwell, I. 457
- Woodmansterne, Surrey, II. 218; its healthy condition, 220