

- Woodriding hamlet, Pinner, Middlesex, I. 251
- Woodside, Surrey; the Croydon rams, II. 126
- Wood Street, Walthamstow, I. 465
- Wooltons, Cligwell; its various names, I. 451
- Woolwich; situation and extent of the town, II. 6; its etymology; "Domesday" record of Woolwich; descent of the manor, 7; a curious tradition respecting North Woolwich; Roman occupation of Woolwich; a market established here; acreage of the parish, and census returns; description of the town, 8; steamboat piers, and railway stations; early naval importance of the town; Pepps' official visits to the dockyard; dangers of the neighbourhood; Woolwich a century ago, 9; omnibuses and steam-packets established, 10; Hanging Wood; Woolwich as a fishing village; St. Mary's parish church, 11; other churches and chapels; the Goldsmiths' Almshouses; parochial almshouses, 12; Lovelace, the Cavalier poet; Grimaldi, the clown; situation and extent of the dockyard; its early history, 14, 15; enlargement of the dockyard; the docks re-modelled under Sir John Rennie; the docks "disestablished"; subsequent use of the dockyard; convicts and the hulks, 16; situation and extent of the Royal Arsenal; Beresford Street and Beresford Square; condition of the locality a century ago; an explosion at the gun foundry at Moorfields; Andrew Schalch, 17; early history of the ordnance armory at Woolwich; "Greenwich Barne"; extracts from Ordnance records, 18; the laboratory establishment removed hither from Greenwich; Woolwich Warren, 19; general view of the Arsenal; mutiny among the Woolwich rope-makers; establishment of the brass foundry here, 20; number of men employed here; "watering time"; description of the Arsenal building; the entrance, 21; Dial square; the old brass gun foundry; the laboratory workshop; the pattern-room and museum, 22; the Military Store Department; the gun factories, 23; "Woolwich Infants," 24; the great Nasmyth hammer, 25, 26; the Carriage Department; regulations for the admission of the public; Museum of the Royal Artillery, 26; the East Laboratory; the Sale Yard; the "proof-huts," 27; the convicts' graves, 28; barracks for sappers and miners; dépôt for field-train artillery; the "ordnance hospital," barracks for the Royal Horse and Foot Artillery, 28; the Bluntpoore trophy; the Crimean memorial, 29; the Royal Engineer Barracks; the Army Service Corps; the Dépôt Barracks, 30; the Riding School; the Royal Artillery Institution; the Royal Military Repository, 31; the Rotunda, 31, 32; the Royal Military Academy; 32; memorial of the Prince Imperial; a mineral well; Shooters' Hill; the "Bull" inn, 33; Plum Lane, 34
- Woolwich Cemetery, Plumstead Common, II. 12, 37; the Princess Alice catastrophe, 38
- Woolwich Common, II. 8, 10, 11, 28, 33
- Woolwich Dockyard; its history, II. 14, 15, 16; convict labour in, 16, 17 (see Royal Arsenal)
- Woolwich guns, Manufacture of, II. 23, 24
- Worcester Park, II. 230, 511, 513
- Worcesters manor-house, Enfield, I. 359, 360
- Wordsworth, Dr., head master of Harrow School, I. 261, 262, 266
- Wordsworth, the poet, II. 354, 374, 455
- Worton House, Isleworth, I. 60
- Wrasall, Sir N. W., II. 104, 105, 137, 157, 254, 255, 392, 485
- Wren, Sir Christopher, I. 57, 144, 155, 161, 164, 170, 314, II. 8, 356
- Wrotham Park, South Mimms, I. 318, 319
- Wrothes, The family of the, Enfield, I. 373, 374, 447
- Wyatville, Sir J., II. 32, 238, 399, 419
- Wycherley, the dramatist, I. 90
- Wyke Farm, Brentford, I. 39
- Wynford, Lord, II. 63, 80

Y

- Yates, Mrs., actress, II. 368
- Yeading or Yeading manor, Hayes, Middlesex, I. 210
- Yeovenev, Staines, I. 191
- Yew-trees, Old, I. 195, 200, 216, 229, 238, 314, 332, 356, 364, II. 65, 119, 131, 454
- Yiewsley, West Drayton, I. 208, 226
- York, Duke of, Duel between Colonel Lennox and the, II. 491
- York House, Twickenham, I. 89; historical associations of the place, 89, 90; its subsequent owners, 90; description of the house, 91
- Young, Thomas, and "Pope's Villa," I. 110

Z

- Zoffany, the painter, I. 5, 16, 17, 35, II. 400, 404
- Zuchero, the painter, I. 167

Plum
2/12/00
MK